CATES IS BACK LEAN AND HAPPY

Big Wall Street Operator Returns from Europe in Glee Because He Lost Fifty Pounds in Flesh.

GREETED WITH A KISS.

Met by Throng of Relatives and Business Associates, He Tells of His rrest in Paris and Other Things, but Is Silent on Business.

Having lost fiesh and made money, John W. Gates came back to America to-day looking the picture of health and happiness. He arrived on the Oceanic, acompanied by his wife.

When the financier went abroad he weighed 250 pounds. Just before getting off the steamer he tipped the beam at 208, and he had much more to say about this than he did about that $17,-500,000 check which J. P. Morgan has all ready to hand him when he cares to call for it.

The crowd that was at the pier to meet the big operator and shaker of Wall street conventions, had the look of a Steel and Wire Board of Directors meeting. In it were Joseph Harris, E. A. Ladew, William Oliver, Jacob Field, John Lambert, Isaac Ellwood and a lot of other satellites of Mr. Gates, and they danced attendance in a way that showed how strong the speculator is with those who are with him.

Kissed in Greeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Gates, son and daughter-in-law of the millionaire and Mrs. Charles Gurney, his sister, were also there. When he came down the gang-plank the first person to greet him was young Mrs. Gates. She gave him a resounding smack with her 'Hello, pop."

"That's the finest thing I've had since I went away," said the arrival, with a beaming face.

While he was getting through the formalitles necessary for an escape from He was chiefly concerned about his lass of flesh.

"Why," he declared, "I lost fifty pounds while I was on the other side, You know I got pretty fat before I went away. I got up to 260 pounds, and I didn't like it. I went up to Saratoga to work down, but after drinking more water than I thought there was in the world, I only reduced ten pounds. Then decided to go abroad for health and rest. Financier Furious at Republican Interference in Coal Strike Refuses to "Give Up" for the Campaign Fund This Year.

HE IS ANGRY AT ODELL, TOO.

Governor's Refusal to Run on Ticket with Wall Street Man's Selection for Lieutenant-Governor Provoked Him-What Politicians Say.

The Republican campaign managers will have to get along this year without the customary handsome check of J. Pierpont Morgan, Mr. Morgan has declined to give a dollar to the Republican Campaign Fund, and while the managers at the Fifth Avenue Hotel affect to make light of it, the story is out, and it is feared that it will affect other heretofore large contributions.

The reasons which led the Wall stree magnate to withhold his customary support to the Republican ticket are a matter of much speculation. It is known that Mr. Morgan is incensed at the interference of the Republican politicians in the coal strike difficulties, and he has given vigorous expression of his views on that subject in private con-

Angry at Odell, Too.

His wrath over Odell's declaration f independence at Saratoga and Senator Platt's surrender to the younger leader in the turning down of Mr. Morgan's candidate for Lieutenant-Governor, George R. Sheldon, is well known, and either of these is considered sufficient reason, among those who know Mr. Morgan's temper, for his refusal to contribute to a fund intended to aid in the re-election of Governor

But there is still another, which is considered a stronger reason by politicians. It is because, as ex-Mayor James K. McGuire, of Syracuse, expresses it. Gov. Odell made capital for his own re-election by placing the burden of taxation on corporations in order that he might go before the people claiming that direct taxation of their farms and homes for State expenses had been wiped out.

"I DO NOT KNOW I HAVE NERVES,"

Pe-ru-na Refreshes, Invigorates, Recuperates.

PR. HARTMAN receives many letters from suffering women who have been cured of some catarrhal derangement by the use of Peruna. The following letter speaks for itself: The Peruna Mediaine Co., Colum-"Gentlemen:—My health was excellent until about six months recommend to try Peruna. I canago, when I seemed to have a not tell you the condition of my collapse from over-doing social-ly, and the doctor ordered an en-The least noise irritated me and

It is very easy indeed for the doctor to order patients a change of scene and climate. Such an order is very easily given, and is often a very appropriate remedy. Indeed, it would be a good thing if all people suffering from nervousness could travel and recuperate their nerves by change of climate and scene, but not one case in five hundred can do this. Most people are tied at home by duties or possibly cannot afrord to make the desired change. It is very easy, therefore, for the doctor to order this change, but sometime, very diment or even impossible for the patient to carry it out.

Peruna Invigorates.

In all such cases Peruna is a godsend. Peruna comes to those who are unable to afford the expensive luxuries of change of scene and climate. Peruna comes to such people with refreshment, recuperation and a renewal of vigor and spirits.

Nervous Women.

No nervous women.

No nervous woman ought to neglect to give Peruna a fair trial. It is almost absolutely certain to help her, and in some cases the relief is magical.

Margaret Reimer, 21 Cedare Terrace, Het Springs, Ark., writes: "I was very much run down about a year ago and all medical treatment failed to bring the required relief and toning my system needed. I was advised to try Peruna, which I did only when everything else failed. One bottle really made an entirely different woman of me, and four bottles toned up the system and restored me to perfect health. I shall always speak in the highest praise of Peruna and cheerfully recommend it to any and all in need of a tonic. With the very best wishes for your success."—Margaret Reimer.

wishes for your success."—Margaret Reimer.

Mrs. Margaret Little, of 47 Hoyt street, Brooklyn, N. Y., writes:

"I have been troubled with constipation and indigertion for over a year, my complexion was ruined and I was nervous and losing flesh every day. The doctors adried that I go to a sanitarium, but a number of people advised me to try Peruna before going to that expense, and I did so. I found that the first bottle regulated my bowels, cleared my complexion, and by the time I had taken six bottles my stomach and disection was in perfect working order, and has remained so ever since.

"As this was very much cheaper than going to a sanitarium, I have every reason to be grateful."—Margaret Little.

Mrs. Mary A. Engelhard, 2825 Madison street, St. Louis, Mo., writes:

"I have been a hard worker

"I have been a hard worker all my life, and very often I need a tonic. Nothing does me so much good as Peruna. It acts like a charm, and I teel like a new woman. I do all my own work and a lot of other work be-sides. I will give Peruna all the credit."—Mrs. Mary A. Engel

Miss Mamie Powell, Lake Charles, Louisiana, writes: "I sincerely believe that Perun is woman's best friend, for it has certainly been that to me. I had had head aches, backaches and other aches every month for a long time, but shortly after I began to take Peruna this was a thing of the past, and I have good reason to be grateful. I take a bottle every spring and fall now, and that keeps my health perfect, and I certainly am more robust now than I have been before and am weighing more. I do not think any one will be disappointed in the results obtained from the use of Peruna."—Miss Mamie Powell.

Peruna Cannot Be Imitated.

Pe-ru-na Cannot Be Imitated.

There is no use trying to imitate Peruna. It has been tried many times by men skilled in pharmacy and chemistry, but they have always failed. The imitators of Peruna don't fool any one who has ever taken Peruna or who has ever witnessed the good results of Peruna.

Peruna acts so promptly, its benefits are o lasting, and it is so sure to reach catarrh wherever located in the body that no mitations of Peruna can succeed.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write it once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full tatement of your case, and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.
